Learning Policy

The Headteacher and Senior Leadership Team are responsible for this Policy.

Principle Behind the Policy

Archway School is a school where all members of the community are valued as learners. We seek to develop in every person the skills and attributes which will enable them to succeed, in both school and the wider society. Learning and the teaching that enables that learning to take place is the core purpose of all at Archway School.

Aim of the Policy

The School aims to provide a high quality learning experience for all students.

The Policy

High quality learning for all will be delivered through:

- a variety of learning experiences and teaching styles which are most matched to students' needs
- an active, engaging, stimulating and therefore enjoyable learning environment and experience
- supporting the needs of all individuals so that they are motivated, challenged and encouraged to succeed
- a curriculum that reflects individual needs, the needs of the school and of wider society
- enabling independent, active and reflective learning to take place
- encouraging students to take responsibility for their own learning
- the use of effective and appropriate assessment procedures

Provision will be made within the school's budget for the continuing professional development of staff

This policy is central to all other policies which should be used to support these statements.
